Get Organized Month is a GO with Goodwill[®]
January is Get Organized (GO) Month, and Goodwill is Here to Help by Transforming Your Generous Donations Into Vital Community Services

Long Beach, CA — January 17, 2018 — Entering a new year frequently inspires positive life changes like decluttering and simplifying, so it's no surprise that January is officially designated as Get Organized (GO) month. If getting organized has topped your list of New Year's resolutions, let Goodwill, Serving the People of Southern Los Angeles County (SOLAC) put you on the right track. It's as easy as 1-2-3!

1. Start Small: If you're feeling overwhelmed by the thought of organizing your whole home, try tackling the room or area where clutter is causing the biggest challenge. Is the garage too full for the car to fit in? Does closet clutter make mornings a hassle? Having trouble finding space for your holiday gifts? Attack those areas first. You might feel so inspired by your small decluttering victories that you expand your GO efforts to the rest of the house.
2. Sort and Inspect: Goodwill SOLAC is happy to accept most used clothing and household items. Click here for specifics on what Goodwill does and does not accept.
3. Head to Goodwill: Visit www.ThinkGood.org to find your nearest donation center in Southern Los Angeles County.

By making a donation to Goodwill SOLAC, you not only help clear clutter, but you also help members of the community attain vital job skills, explore employment opportunities and make a positive social impact in Southern Los Angeles County.

Happy organizing!
