Long Beach, CA—January 19, 2017—Former Los Angeles County Supervisor Don Knabe and three individuals who’ve transformed their lives through Goodwill’s job programs will be honored on February 22 at the “Celebrate the Power of Work” Awards Dinner presented by Goodwill, Serving the People of Southern Los Angeles County (SOLAC). The annual awards event is held to honor a deserving community leader as well as inspiring individuals who now lead successful careers through Goodwill SOLAC’s job programs.

The awards event will also recognize Goodwill’s Employer of the Year for its role in hiring graduates and other participants of Goodwill SOLAC’s job programs. In addition, a Community Partner of the Year will be awarded.

Popular radio personality Pat Prescott of 94.7 The Wave will host the event, which will be attended by local community and business leaders as well as the general public. Attendees will be able to peruse the event’s silent auction before taking their seats for the dinner and awards program.

This special awards dinner will be held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel located in the Shoreline Village area of downtown Long Beach. All proceeds from this event will go toward funding Goodwill SOLAC’s mission—providing job training and placement programs for those with barriers to employment.
